Training is Free for those who work with children and youth and is funded through the PA Department of Public Welfare.

All training and resource materials are included.
Course is approved for social work CEUs, DPW, and Keystone Stars.

The workshop will review the elements of child abuse, including the legal definitions of a child, perpetrator, and categories and indicators of abuse.

The training will provide an overview of mandated reporting obligations, including how to make a report, guidelines to working more effectively with local children and youth services agencies, and the key points of the Child Protective Services Law, including the most recent changes.
