

SECONDARY and K-12 INTER-PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS

Effective October 1, 2014 the Secondary and K-12 Inter-parochial schools of the diocese are formally registered with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as Domestic Nonprofit Corporations.

The Corporation has two classes of members, the Episcopal Member and the Pastoral Members. The Episcopal Member is the current diocesan bishop. The Pastoral Members are the current Pastor or Administrator of the parishes that cooperate to form the school. By-laws for each school, enacted by the Episcopal Member, specify the responsibilities and authority of each member class.

The operations of the school will be directed by a Board of Directors, appointed by the Pastoral Members and approved by the Episcopal Member. No less than 25% of the Board of Directors shall be composed of Pastoral Members. The governing document for the Board of Directors is contained in the respective by-laws for each corporation.
