

ADMINISTRATION

SECRETARY FOR EDUCATION

The Secretary for Education, appointed by the Most Reverend Bishop, is delegated with the responsibility for education in Catholic pre-school, school, and parish religious education programs of the diocese. This includes catechetical training, and education in human sexuality.

The Secretary for Education is the spokesperson for the Bishop in these areas of educational ministry.

Reporting to and assisting the Secretary for Education in this educational ministry are: the Superintendent of Schools and his/her assistants, the Director of the Department of Religious Education, and the Director of the Office of Adult Education and Catechist Formation.

Policy

Revised: October 4, 1996

NCD/Bishop of Harrisburg