

ADMINISTRATION

DIOCESAN DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Diocesan Director of Religious Education, with the approval of the Most Reverend Bishop, is hired by the Secretary for Education and is responsible for the administration and supervision of the Roman Catholic pre-school, elementary, and secondary parish religious education programs under the jurisdiction of the Diocese of Harrisburg.

The Diocesan Director of Religious Education is directly responsible to the Secretary for Education in all matters dealing with the pre-school, elementary and secondary parish religious education programs of the diocese.

Pastors and Coordinators/Directors of Religious Education are directly accountable to the Diocesan Director of Religious Education in diocesan religious education matters. All other parish catechetical personnel are indirectly accountable to the Diocesan Director through the Pastor and parish Coordinator/Director of Religious Education.

Policy

Revised: October 4, 1996

NCD/Bishop of Harrisburg