  - B. Liturgical prayer is public prayer of the Church
  - C. There are four types of liturgical prayer
    1. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass – Objectively it is the greatest reality that any person can be part of this side of heaven.
      - a. Source and Summit of the Christian life
      - b. All graces that come into the world flow from it
      - c. All other sacraments oriented toward the Eucharist

  - b. Required for clergy and religious and recommended for lay people according to their state in life
  - c. The Psalms: Treasures of prayer encapsulating every emotion
  - d. The Hours – 7 hours (but they don't take an hour to pray) they take 10-15 minutes
3. The seven sacraments – All are liturgical prayer
- a. All were instituted by Jesus Christ
  - b. Their Scriptural foundations can all be found in the Bible
  - c. There are seven of them
  - d. They are signs, instituted by Christ, entrusted to His Church, that give grace
  - e. The signs are composed of matter (the sensory stuff, i.e. what you see, hear, touch, taste, smell) and form (the principal words of the sacrament)
  - f. In some cases we know specifically when sacraments were instituted, e.g. the Holy Eucharist and Holy Orders were instituted at the Last Supper on Holy Thursday, Confession was instituted on Easter Sunday night in the upper room in Jerusalem where the Apostles were hiding, cf. John 20:19-23.
4. Eucharistic Adoration with Benediction (Blessing of the people with the Blessed Sacrament)
- a. Includes adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which is in a sacred vessel called a monstrance
  - b. Certain hymns pertaining the worship of the Eucharist are sung, e.g. the Tantum Ergo,

- c. Certain prayers are prayed, e.g. the Divine Praises
- d. Blessing of the people with the Eucharist by the Priest or Deacon.

IV. Devotional Prayer

A. Eucharistic Adoration without Benediction – St. Alphonsus Liguori said that Eucharistic adoration is the greatest of devotions.

B. Lectio divina

1. Divine reading
2. Slow, deliberate reading of a passage of Scripture several times
3. Use of the imagination in the picturing of the scene
4. Meditation on the scene
5. Making of a personal resolution based on the reading

C. Devotional Prayer to Mary and the Saints

1. The Rosary

5. The Eucharist, Confession, and Divine Mercy
6. The Novena
7. Divine Mercy Sunday

E. Other Important Devotions

1. The Stations of the Cross – Focuses on the suffering and death of Christ. Most Catholic parishes have Stations of the Cross on Fridays during Lent, but one can pray them privately any time of year. Blessed John Paul II prayed them every Friday for his entire adult life.
2. Litanies – List of praises or invocations of God, the Blessed Virgin Mary, or the Saints
3. Novenas – 9-day Prayer asking God’s help or the intercession of Mary or one of the other saints for a particular favor
4. Prayer Books can be very helpful

F. Places for prayer

1. We can and should pray everywhere
2. There are places particularly favorable for prayer, especially in front of the Blessed Sacrament

G. Rhythm of Prayer

1. St. Paul tells us to Pray without ceasing (1 Thes. 5:17)
2. According to the Liturgical Year
3. Throughout the Year

H. Pray according to our state in life - Reading from St. Francis de Sales

1. All Catholics need to make sure they get to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation
2. All Catholics should frequently go to Confession
3. All Catholics should have devotion to the Mary, Mother of God
4. Everyone should pray minimally every morning, before all meals, and before you go to sleep.
5. However, beyond that, how one prays and the amount of time one prays will vary a great deal according to one’s vocation, e.g. married, priest, consecrated religious sister or brother)

I. Some basic tips regarding prayer

1. Use memorized and un-memorized prayer
2. Use the senses, including art and song
3. Pray according to your state in life
4. Realize that you will experience dryness in prayer – persevere! Do not kid yourselves....the Christian life is a battle! But there a great victory awaits those who persevere in God's grace!
5. Have the heart and mind of a true disciple of Christ!
