

A FOUNDATION TO BUILD UPON

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS Transparency

1. Is the bankruptcy process transparent? The Chapter 11 process is transparent as all documents and proceedings are available to the public, both on the Court's website and at the following website: <https://dm.epiq11.com/case/rcdh/info>. These documents include extensive financial disclosures.

Further, claimants, including survivors of abuse, will have the ability to seek and receive discovery from Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg documents as part of the bankruptcy process. Discovery includes receipt of written records, including records regarding allegations of abuse. A bankruptcy judge will oversee and monitor this process.
