PARTICIPANTS UNDER 18 - Prescription and Over the Counter Medications

All participants under the age of 18 must hand in medications to the medics during check in. These medications will be given to the participants based on their prescription, for the participant to self-administer. We require written parental permission for all medication taken while on retreat.

All medication must be brought in a correctly labeled pharmacy or manufacturer’s medication container. Medications will not be accepted in containers such as plastic bags or daily pillboxes. Medications will be distributed exactly as the container instructs. Please send enough medication to cover the duration of the retreat.

I hereby grant permission for nonprescription medications (such as acetaminophen, ibuprofen, throat lozenges, antacid, antihistamine, etc.) to be given to my child if deemed advisable.

CODE OF BEHAVIOR AND HOSPITALITY GUIDELINES

At Mount Saint Mary's Seminary, some priests will be sharing the living space with us. We are guests in their home. This sharing of space is quite similar to that which takes place in a family home. For this to work, each of us must be considerate of other people in the facility for space, privacy and a peaceful atmosphere.

Please review the following expectations:

- You are representing the Diocese of Harrisburg. You are called to live your life as a faithful member of the Catholic Church, living a Gospel-centered morality. You will not participate in a lifestyle or habitual behaviors contrary to the moral teachings of the Church.
- Any vandalism or stealing will result in immediate dismissal.
- Alcohol, drugs or drug paraphernalia are not permitted and will result in immediate dismissal.
- Weapons or simulated weapons of any kind are not permitted. This includes but is not limited to: firearms of any kind, airflow guns, BB guns, knives, etc.
- Laser pointers are not permitted.
- No one (except staff) is permitted in the kitchen area. Drinks and snacks will be provided in the recreation room.
- Do not leave trash around the building and grounds. Any vandalism will result in immediate dismissal from the camp.
- Stay with the group and do not roam around the building or grounds. You will have recreational time in designated areas.
- Participants are expected, health permitting, to attend all activities.
- Everyone will be assigned to a dorm room. Do not switch rooms. No visiting is allowed in dorm rooms. Only you are to be in your room, no exceptions.
- Only enter the corridor containing your dorm room. No one is permitted to enter any other hallway containing dorm rooms.
- Dress modestly and appropriately.
- Behave in a manner as not to hurt anyone verbally, emotionally or physically.
- Behave in a manner as to not to put down or make fun of another person.
- Refrain from the use of profanity
- Treat each other with respect. Be Christ to each other.

We respectfully ask for your cooperation and are sure that you will adhere to this simple code of behavior. You represent the Church and are called as a young man to project an image of Christian consideration, sensitivity and respect to all others and to the property around you.

I understand and agree to the Quo Vadis Days Code of Behavior and realize that infractions may result in my dismissal.

Waiver and Release of all Claims

I understand that the retreat will have competent adult supervision and reasonable and appropriate measures will be made to minimize the risk of injury and/or accident. I understand and have been informed that taking part in this retreat involves the risk of injury. I agree to assume the full risk of any injuries, including death, damages or loss which I may sustain as a result of participating in any and all activities connected to this retreat.

I hereby grant my consent for staff members and/or adult volunteers under whose auspices the program is conducted, to secure all necessary emergency medical care and/or treatment that may be necessary for me during the entire retreat including any necessary transportation, if provided by a staff member or adult volunteer. I release and hold harmless any said staff member or adult volunteer from any liability, who in good faith is placed in a position requiring decisions to be made for emergency care or medical treatment for me. In case of accident, injury or loss, neither my family nor I will hold Mount St. Mary's University and Seminary, the Diocese of Harrisburg, the parish, nor any person or affiliate organization associated with the event, responsible or liable.

Liability in regard to COVID-19

In regard to COVID-19 and/or its variants and hereafter, and as much as is reasonably possible, all persons using Mount St. Mary's University and Seminary premises will be personally responsible for demonstrating safety and sanitation practices according to the norms required by local health authorities at the time of my stay. I understand that, while all precautions will be taken, it is impossible to guarantee the prevention of germs or viruses and the possibility of contracting germs and viruses. By executing the release all participants understand the potential risks associated with participating in the retreat and are voluntarily electing to participate with knowledge of the potential risks therefore, in consideration for making the arrangements and providing this retreat, I hereby release and hold harmless the Diocese of Harrisburg as well as Mount St. Mary's University and Seminary, and all their agents, employees and representatives from any and all liability in connection with COVID-19 and/or its variants or other health issues which may affect me as a result of this retreat.

I have read and fully understand the Waiver and Release of All Claims and the Liability in regard to COVID-19
